

Young European Symposium

Fact Sheet for 2025

The Young European Symposium brings together Europe's brightest minds under the esteemed patronage of former German Federal President Dr. Horst Köhler. From May 2–4, 2025, around 200 emerging leaders, high-achieving students, and young professionals will converge to tackle the most pressing challenges of our time. With inspiring tracks on technology, geopolitics, leadership, and culture, YES is where innovation meets action. Our mission is to spark dialogue, foster collaboration, and craft solutions for a sustainable and resilient Europe. Join us at the iconic "Unter den Linden" venue in Berlin — whether as a speaker sharing your expertise or as a sponsor championing tomorrow's leaders. Say YES to Europe's future — get involved today!

What? Our program proposition:

Technology and Science	Geopolitics, Democracy, and Peace	Responsibility, Leadership, and Entrepreneurship	Sports, Arts, and Culture
Innovations and societal impacts of advancements like AI, biotechnology, and quantum computing	Topics on governance, international relations, and conflict resolution.	Leadership practices, ethical considerations, and startup innovation.	Culture, entertainment and social cohesion through arts and sports

Additionally, throughout the day(s): Skill Development & Mentoring, featuring hands-on workshops and personalized 1:1 mentoring

When?

May 2-4, 2025

Where?

Unter den Linden 6, Berlin

Patronage?

We mourn the the passing of our patron former Federal President Dr. Horst Köhler.

Language?

Primarily English

Who?

Around 200 young professionals, students, doctoral candidates, and entrepreneurs aged 18–36 from across Europe

Get in touch with us now!

young-european-symposium.eu

contact@young-european-symposium.eu